ABOUT THE .ORG IMPACT AWARDS

OVERVIEW

For more than 30 years, the .ORG domain has been the foundation that powers the inspiration of millions online around the globe. From individuals to large corporations, small community groups to multinational NGOs, each .ORG aims to positively impact the communities it serves.

The .ORG Impact Awards (OIAs) recognize .ORGs that are connecting communities, making a difference in the world, and leveraging the Internet for transformative change. This annual program celebrates .ORG domain name users of all sizes for their contributions to their cause, their organization's goals, and society in general.

NO SUBMISSION FEES

.ORG — a mission-driven organization itself — aims to empower and connect those who inspire the world, and as such, does not charge organizations to enter the .ORG Impact Awards. Rather, it awards winners with a donation and an opportunity to showcase their .ORG's good work or individual efforts by their supporters.

WHY NOMINATE

The .ORG Impact Awards celebrates purpose-driven achievements of members of the .ORG Community. Their great work will be reviewed by an esteemed judging panel composed of leaders in the Internet, nonprofit and marketing sectors.

BENEFITS INCLUDE:

Cash donations to a charitable organization of your choice (subject to the 2023 rules), ranging from $2,500 – $40,000 to finalists and winners. Note: in the event of a tie, the cash award may be split — see below for details.

A custom trophy for the winners.

A dedicated logo mark for use on their .ORG's website and materials will be provided for finalists and winners to promote their achievements.

The opportunity to be featured in various .ORG digital platforms throughout the year, including articles, videos, social posts and more.

Raise the profile of your nominated .ORG to increase the potential of partnership development, talent acquisition and audience reach.

Providing additional validation to programs that can help build, strengthen, and fund them in the future.

ENTRY JUDGING

After the end of the Program Period, finalists and winners of the .ORG Impact Awards are selected based on the merit of their entries in two rounds. This is not a sweepstakes, contest or “game of chance.” There are two stages of judging:

ROUND 1

All entries will be reviewed by the Review Panel (consisting of PIR staff, PR agency, or other PIR affiliates) to identify the top 10 entries in each category. These would then proceed to Round 2.

Top entries from Round 1 will be reviewed by the Judges Panel (comprised of leaders in the internet, nonprofit and marketing sectors) with the objective of identifying a winner in each category, as follows:

- ✓ Each entry will be vetted by the .ORG Impact Award organizers to ensure it meets all eligibility requirements and adheres to the official rules.
- ✓ The .ORG Impact Award organizers may move an entry to another category if it is deemed to be unsuitable for the category selected, but appropriate for another.
- ✓ All judges will sign a confidentiality agreement that prohibits them from disclosing information from entry submissions.
- ✓ Judges will be instructed to recuse themselves from judging entries where they might have a conflict of interest. (e.g. – If they are a member of a submitting organization).
- ✓ A maximum of five entries will make up a subcategory finalist list

ROUND 2

Judges do not discuss their individual scores with anyone—not even each other. As such, judges will not know the winners until the winners are announced at the celebratory event in November 2023.

TIPS FOR PREPARING YOUR ENTRY

The best tip for preparing a submission is to recruit a team!

CONSIDER THESE FOUR STEPS WHEN DEVELOPING YOUR NOMINATION SUBMISSION:

1 WRITING YOUR NOMINATION SUBMISSION

If successful, your nomination submission will win the award for your nominee so don't underestimate its importance. Make each response to each entry question succinct and engaging. Make sure your answers address the elements required under each category. Think about organizing the entry responses like you're telling a story, which will help give the judges a complete picture of the situation or challenge you're describing, how your nominee developed a plan to approach the situation and how success was measured.

When looking at initiatives specifically, it's important to keep your submission straightforward and to the point. Give the judge a good overview of your nominee's organization and the initiative, issues(s) and approach, but don't get lost in the weeds—focus on the initiative.

The following questions are provided as thought starters to help you approach preparation of strong nomination responses, but please remember to address the actual questions in the online form (also above) when submitting your nomination.

SITUATION ANALYSIS

- ✓ What was the plan or goals in general terms? Was it in response to an existing problem, or does it examine a potential problem?
- ✓ Was research used to examine or define a situation—primary, secondary or both? Primary research involves original research, including focus groups, interviews and surveys. Secondary research involves searching existing resources for information.

STRATEGIC APPROACH

- ✓ If conducted, how did the research shape the planning process?
- ✓ What were the specific goals of the plan?
- ✓ Were there measurable objectives of the plan?
- ✓ What was the budget? If there was low or no budget available, how was this challenge overcome?

PROGRAMMATIC EXECUTION

- ✓ What was the timeline and how did activities flow?
- ✓ What were the key tactics or activities, and who were the target audiences?
- ✓ Were there any difficulties encountered? If so, how were they handled?

RESULTS

- ✓ What happened? What were your nominee's results?
- ✓ How did you evaluate the results? What methods did you use?
- ✓ How did the results compare to the specific goals or measurable objectives outlined in your nominee's strategic approach?
- ✓ How well do the results reflect original strategy and planning?
- ✓ Who benefited from the results?

2 PULLING TOGETHER YOUR BACKUP MATERIALS

It's important to provide backup materials to your summary. It will give the judges a chance to see your nominee's work and how that work was translated into action. If you talk about something in your summary, include the documentation for it. Consider "before" and "after" photos, if applicable, to document your nominee's progress, change and results. The judges are looking for evidence of your nominee's hard work, so be sure to show it off!

3 REVIEW YOUR NOMINATION SUBMISSION

Now that you've put in all that work, don't let it go to waste. Proof and reproof! Remember that judges are representing a variety of industries and sectors—remove any jargon and explain anything they may need to know about your nominee or local community. Go through the award category descriptions again — are you meeting all the requirements? Let your entry sit for a day, then look at it again. Anything you can delete? Anything you missed?

It's now time to submit through the online submission platform.
